

James R. McNeece

SUMMARY

Jim McNeece was born in 1945 in Albuquerque, NM and raised in Sarcoxie, MO. He graduated from the Naval Academy with the Class of 1967 and was commissioned in the United States Marine Corps, where he spent 20 years as a Naval Aviator. He and his wife, Pat, married in 1970 and have two married daughters and four grandchildren. Upon retirement from the Marines in 1987, he worked in the defense industry in the Washington area. He and Pat settled into their current home in Crownsville, MD in 2001.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

- MBA Business Administration, The George Washington University 1997
- MS Personnel Management, The George Washington University 1976
- Graduate Study: Nuclear Engineering, University of Illinois (Atomic Energy Commission Fellowship) 1968
- BS Mechanical Engineering, United States Naval Academy 1967

EXPERIENCE

United States Marine Corps – Twenty years serving as a Naval Aviator and in various staff positions. Three years on the Naval Academy faculty as an instructor in the Physics Department.

Defense Industry – Provided support and analytical services including simulation and training systems to various government agencies. After a merger, took on company-wide responsibilities for human resources, management information systems, facilities and administrative operations, security, and recruitment and training.

Other – Director of Finance for a small, Washington based event management firm with responsibility for finance and accounting, human resources, benefits administration, information technology and office management.

Volunteer Work –

- Volunteer Coordinator and later Administrative Coordinator and Resident Agent for the Washington Baltimore Regional 2012 Coalition, a 501(c)(3) organization for a regional bid for the 2012 Olympic Games
- Treasurer for the Belvoir Farms Homeowners Association
- Secretary for the USNA Class of 1967

Hobbies – Jim enjoys flying from Lee Airport in Edgewater, and he and Pat have become avid walkers, having twice walked the Caminho Português from Porto to Santiago de Compostela.