Solutions Revealed! How Communities Solve Stormwater Runoff

The public and press are invited to join with the Severn River Association (SRA) on Tuesday March 18 to learn how local river communities are dealing with various stormwater runoff problems.

As part of SRA's monthly Educational Series, leaders from the Herald Harbor and Winchester on the Severn neighborhoods will explain how their communities sought grants from state, federal and nonprofit groups – including SRA – to help design and build stormwater control solutions.

SRA's guest speakers will be:

- Charlotte Lubbert, Master Watershed Steward and SRA Director, and Matt Rhoderick will explain bioretention projects in Herald Harbor, and

- Eloise Ullman, Master Watershed Steward, will discuss community efforts to design, fund and build two rain gardens in her community, Winchester on the Severn.

When: Tuesday March 18, at 7 pm (rescheduled from Jan. 22).

Where: Union Jack's, across from Whole Foods in Annapolis Towne Center, 2072 Somerville Rd., Annapolis, MD. <https://www.facebook.com/unionjacksannapolis>.
